VIRGINIA: IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY OF MARTINSVILLE

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA,)
CITY OF MARTINSVILLE,) PLAINTIFF,)
CASE NO: CR19000009-00
v.)
BRIAN DAVID HILL,) DEFENDANT.)

NOTICE OF APPEAL

Brian David Hill, criminal case Defendant, and Appellant, pro se, hereby appeals to the Court of Appeals of Virginia from the final judgment of this Court by final order entered February 22, 2022, denying Brian Hill's entitled "MOTION FOR JUDGMENT OF ACQUITTAL OR NEW TRIAL BASED UPON NEW EVIDENCE WHICH COULD NOT BE ADMISSIBLE AT THE TIME OF CONVICTION; NEW EVIDENCE OF SPOILATION OF EVIDENCE COMMITTED BY COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA; REQUEST FOR SANCTIONS AGAINST COUNSEL GLEN ANDREW HALL, ESQUIRE (OFFICER OF THE COURT) FOR VIOLATING COURT ORDERS FOR NOT TURNING OVER BODY-CAMERA FOOTAGE AND IT IS LIKELY DESTROYED AND BIOLOGICAL EVIDENCE OF BLOOD VIALS OBTAINED ON DAY OF CHARGE, ALSO LIKELY DESTROYED".

There are no transcripts as there was no hearing over the denial of that motion. Also entitled "defendant's Motion for Judgment of Acquittal or New Trial".

This appeal is being filed in good faith as it doesn't make sense for a Court to punish a criminal Defendant and have his Federal Supervised Release revoked in 2019 and have Defendant pay legal fees but not give him the Due Process legal right under the U.S. Constitution and Virginia Constitution to challenge the wrongful conviction based on newly admissible evidence that wasn't admissible in 2019 at the time Defendant had withdrawn his appeal.

Whenever the Defendant had withdrawn his appeal, he never waived his right to prove his innocence or even his right to collaterally attack his criminal conviction based upon new evidence or future evidence or evidence which became admissible at a later time due to a change in Virginia Law. The Court is in the wrong and has deprived Brian David Hill of the Due Process of Law under the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and Article I, Section 11 of the Virginia Constitution. Due process of law of the Virginia Constitution. This Court has deprived this Defendant of due process of law and neglect of duty. This Defendant has a CONSTITUTIONAL or LEGAL RIGHT to a New Trial by Jury whenever new evidence surfaces showing the innocence of Brian David Hill, Brian is entitled to a NEW TRIAL by JURY. Withdrawing appeal does not take away all rights of Brian David Hill, he said in his Motion to Withdraw Appeal back in 2019 that he did not waive all rights and preserved some rights. That withdraw was supposed to only be technical but be allowed to be challenged upon enough evidence of Actual Innocence. A Court cannot just say they don't have jurisdiction to challenge a wrongful conviction but have the jurisdiction to make a criminal Defendant pay legal fees and have a criminal record used against him. The Due Process Clause requires that they cannot demand money from me or anything without due process of law. That was not due process what the Court had entered today. This Court clearly has jurisdiction for requests for a NEW TRIAL. Defendant has read Virginia case law where new evidence can constitute a valid request for a new trial in a post-conviction motion. This Court has clearly IGNORED THE LAW and ignored the law repetitively. This is not a valid decision when there is clearly new evidence and new evidence which starts on the day which that evidence was made admissible under new law passed in 2021. I cannot be expected to file evidence when at the time in 2019 that evidence was inadmissible and treated like it is not legally valid. Now that the evidence is admissible and legally valid, it is NEW EVIDENCE and was not available at the time of withdrawing appeal. This Court is in the wrong and has deprived Defendant of due process of law and has exhibited CRUEL AND UNUSUAL PUNISHMENTS INFILCTED against somebody who lives off of SSI federal disability money; and is innocent of his crime. This is uncalled for.

If this Court doesn't have jurisdiction to overturn its own wrongful conviction, then "who the hell does then?" as former Governor Jesse Ventura said in a press conference over a judicial decision. He said: "The Court said that I don't have jurisdiction, well then who the hell does? Who the hell does then?" This Court wrongfully convicts Brian David Hill of Indecent Exposure under § 18.2-387 but refuses to allow the criminal Defendant to challenge that wrongful conviction.

This is unconstitutional and if the Court does not have jurisdiction to allow Defendant to challenge his wrongful conviction; then maybe this Court doesn't have jurisdiction to make Defendant pay any legal fees either because forcing the Defendant to pay legal fees in this case is Unconstitutional and violates the Due Process clause of the Fourteenth Amendment, when the Court refuses to allow the Defendant to even challenge his wrongful conviction. Due Process is not one sided. Either it has the jurisdiction to allow the Defendant to challenge why he should be forced to pay any legal fees for a crime he is innocent of, or the Court shouldn't have jurisdiction to even enforce it since they refuse to give the Defendant to even challenge why he is being punished by this same Court. This is wrong.

Respectfully submitted with the Court, This the 22th day of February, 2022.
